

Appendix 11
Handwriting tests
Handwriting Tests - Joan Dibdin and Tony Guise

A RECOMMENDATION WILL BE APPRECIATED.

D E L I N O.
THE HANDWRITING EXPERT.
KENNARDS LTD...ADJOINING LIBRARY...CROYDON

Miss Joana M. Dibdin. .10th March, 1942.

Your Handwriting Reveals:-

Very quick powers of concentration. Buoyant nature, cheery and enthusiastic, expressive. A control of emotions and feelings are inward. You possess high ideals and aspirations. A flair for matters Bohemian and you would not abide by all the rules of conventions. Dependability and reliability are discerned - you aim to keep faith and would not break your word. A good business head. Artistic tendencies and inclinations. Love of dancing. Fond of travel. Impulsive on occasions: your thoughts get ahead of you. Yet you possess good foresight and initiative.

Observant, quick powers of perception. Moderately fond of a little gaiety, life and excitement, inclined to keep your troubles to yourself and showing some reserve in that respect. Progressive, ambitious, studious - you utilise a great deal of energy and vitality. A little highly strung. The above are the main essentials given in the verbal reading.

P.T.O.
Delroy

A RECOMMENDATION WILL BE APPRECIATED.

D E L I N O.
THE HANDWRITING EXPERT.
KENNARDS LTD...ADJOINING LIBRARY...CROYDON

To:- Miss Joan Dibbin. Tony . .10th March, 1942.

The ~~Your~~ Handwriting Reveals:-

A studious nature and showing a desire to gain knowledge. Intelligence shown above the average, a keen interest shown in literary matters. A good head for figures. Good powers of concentration - would make a good chess player.

Artistic temperament, love of country life. Marked sense of humour; could and should be a leader of men. Emphatic at times - fond of stressing points. Good determination and will power. Constancy is observed. The writer should succeed in life, as he has tenacity of purpose in aiming to carry out his resolutions. Decisive and definitely possessing the courage of his own convictions. A likable personality.

Delroy

~~The above are the main essentials given in the verbal reading.~~